

RUSTIC

Thickly crusted and densely crumbed, the Rustic family evokes the colors and sensations of the homespun countryside. The dough is made with an earthy, stone-ground flour that embodies the pride in manual workmanship of an older era, and imparts a bold nutty taste to the bread. BREADBAR's hearty Rustic Millstone loaf is the bread that comes closest to the daily bread of our ancestors. The Rustic family harmonizes well with soups and stews, hearty salads and hard or soft cheeses.
